JOHN G. KOELTL, District Judge:

The parties should engage in document exchange pursuant to Rule 26(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; the defendants should produce sufficient documents showing the sales revenues and profits for all products allegedly infringing the plaintiff's copyright; and the plaintiff should serve, and the defendant should answer, interrogatories pursuant to Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure which are related to the value of the damages alleged and the extent of the infringement alleged. No other discovery may proceed at this time. The plaintiff should make a demand, and the defendant should make a counteroffer. The parties should also submit a budget to their respective clients explaining their best estimate of the cost of this litigation.

Once the parties have complied with the above portion of this Order, they should submit a report to the Court pursuant to Rule 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

SO ORDERED.
